“Lead Without a Title: Winning Leadership Lessons to Build a Great Organisation”

With the Globally Celebrated Author and Leadership Guru

ROBIN SHARMA

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI), set up under an Act of Parliament by the Union of India in the year 1949, is mandated to the mission of promoting the Indian Chartered Accountancy Profession as the valued trustee of World Class Financial Competencies, Good Governance and Competitiveness. We are proud to say that ICAI is the second largest accounting body in the world with around 171,000 members occupying eminent and apex positions in Government, Regulatory Bodies, Professional & International Organisations, Industries, Banks, State Enterprises and Financial Institutions in India and across the globe.

The Abu Dhabi and the Dubai Chapters of the Institute have been set up for over 25 years and have a combined strength of over 2200 members. The Chapters are committed to the furtherance of the technical competency and knowledge of its members. This is achieved by hosting seminars and events that are addressed by eminent speakers and experts. The keen interest shown by the members in participating in the Chapters' activities over the years is a tribute to the thirst for knowledge and the desire of the Indian professionals to be at the leading edge of managerial advancements.

Robin Sharma is the celebrated author of 11 bestselling books on leadership, including The Leader Who Had No Title, one of the bestselling business books on the market today. His work has been published in over 60 countries and nearly 75 languages, making him one of the most widely read authors in the world.

He shot to fame with The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari which has topped international bestseller lists and sold over 3,000,000 copies.

What Others Say About Robin

“Your high-energy, multimedia presentation made us laugh, and made us think. Your messages were insightful and on target. Thank you for being such an inspirational and thought provoking keynote speaker. You have set a high standard and raised expectations for our series”.

Bill Norman Vice President – Worldwide Operations, MICROSOFT

“Hi Robin, I don't think any amount of thanks is going to be sufficient to appreciate the impact your message has created on the organization and the people who attended the workshops. I have already seen changes that have wide ranging impact across the organization and I can also feel many of my colleagues taking the time to reflect about their careers and their life and finally decide to reach out to that next 'trapeze' that has their name on it. All it takes is just that one spark to ignite those flames once again - thank you for all your kind words and for your wonderful messages, it could not have come at a better time than NOW.“
